

FOUR DIVORCE PETITIONS GRANTED

Four divorces, two on the petition of the husband and two on the petition of the wife, were granted in the superior court here by Judge Gardiner Greene, Friday afternoon. While one case was continued to next Friday and another to the next week, the other two were granted on the motion list. The divorces were not reached till about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and the last hearing of a divorce case closed at 5 o'clock.

Robertson Intemperance and Cruelty. Annie Robertson, alias Pulasky, of Norwich, whose counsel was Attorney H. R. Perle, secured divorce from Arthur Robertson, alias Mike Pulasky, whom she married on March 24, 1908. The grounds were habitual intemperance and intolerable cruelty. Mrs. Robertson testified that her husband beat her every time he got drunk, which was very often. He would hit her with his hand, dishes, a lamp or anything he got hold of and she would be left with a bruise. He left her three years ago. She was driven out of her home by him. Mrs. Robertson gave corroborative testimony as to the way Mike Pulasky beat her wife. Chief George Linton testified that Pulasky had been frequently arrested for beating his wife, intoxication and breach of the peace, and once for non-support.

Wife Went With Sailer. Joseph Dufour, of Norwich, testified that his wife, Mrs. May Dufour, had agreed with him in January, 1920, not to go out of the house unless her husband was with her, but later he returned from work one night and found her gone. He went to the railroad station and found his wife there with a sailor. Since then the husband and wife have lived apart. Before this she had left him once, in 1915. They lived on Franklin street at one time and she would lock their two children in the house, the witness said, and go out on the streets. The sailor's name, the witness said, is Hoff and since she left him she has been living in Main street apartments in Norwich with the sailor.

Elmer S. Betham, testified that he had seen Mrs. Dufour on the street with a sailor and later the Main street apartments. Mrs. Dufour also testified to seeing Mrs. Dufour with a sailor who was about to introduce Mrs. Dufour to his wife. Mrs. Dufour was then seen by Mrs. Dufour's sister, John Carvante of Meriden, testified he had seen Mrs. Dufour with a sailor in Montville and on the street at Norwich. The divorce decree was granted on the grounds of adultery and the custody of one of the two children was given to the father. The wife's maiden name was Nichols. Attorney John D. Hall conducted Mrs. Dufour's case in court.

Husband Married Another Woman. Victoria Shaw Cady of Tatfield, who married Harold A. Cady on Nov. 27, 1916, testified that she has two children, one 4 and one 2, testified that her husband never did much towards supporting her and left her on Jan. 14, 1919. After that Mrs. Cady got a letter from a woman in South Carolina who wrote that Cady had married her daughter. The marriage license from South Carolina was placed in court. Mrs. Cady testified that her husband wrote to her from jail in South Carolina and admitted he had married a girl named Hodgkinson there. Mrs. Cady is now around here. The witness said, but she had never spoken to him. He has written to have her take him back but has never contributed to her support.

Mrs. Mary Lambert of Tatfield, Mrs. Cady's mother, corroborated her daughter's statement about the desertion and non-support.

Fred L. Dewitt testified that he knew Mr. Cady well and got him work at MacLinn-Rockville. Mr. Cady would work and support his wife. Mr. Dewitt said Cady had told him he married a fourteen-year-old girl in South Carolina and lived with her as a husband and wife. Judge Greene granted the decree on the grounds of adultery and gave the mother the custody of two children.

Wife Left For Europe. William Ryan of New London, suing for divorce from Annie McKee Ryan, whom he married in New York Sept. 25, 1916, testified that she lived with him a week in New London after they were married, then returned, lived with him two months and ran away again. That time she went to Europe and wrote to him from Glasgow, Scotland. He answered, refusing to send her money and he has never heard of or seen her since. At the time she left him she told him she had no use for him but had a fellow in New York.

Patrick J. Ryan, a brother of the witness, corroborated him as to the desertion, and after another corroborative witness, Harold Watson, Judge Greene granted the divorce. Attorney Edmund W. Perkins was counsel for the petitioner.

Over to Next Friday. Attorney C. E. E. E. appeared for Mrs. Annie Maria E. E. of New London, formerly of Norwich, who sought divorce from David E. E. of New London on the grounds of desertion since 1914. The husband has previously been sentenced to pay his wife $3 a week alimony pendente lite, but Attorney E. E. said he has not done so and there is now about $1,000 due.

Attorney Arthur T. Keefe made a statement for Mr. E. E. and said he could not see why this case is on the motion list at this time. Mr. E. E. has, he claimed, a valid defense and makes a general denial of the charges made by his wife in seeking the divorce.

Attorney Hull claimed that this action on the part of the defendant is only another effort at this time to escape paying alimony. E. E. said, left his wife in 1917 with her child, sold his business, and failed to support his wife and that she even had to sell her furniture to raise money for her maintenance. E. E. said that he had left an estate of some size, but the young man had declared he would fix his property so that his wife would never get any of it. He had transferred all his interest in the estate to his sister, but his wife's attorney has attached this, the lawyer said. Judge Greene ruled that the case might stay till next Friday, when it might be tried as a contested case. If the defendant chose to make appearance to contest it, otherwise it would go on as an uncontested case.

One other case on the list Friday, Basile Holmes Gilechrist vs. Thomas Gilechrist, Jr., went off.

ABINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stone and daughter have returned home from North Carolina, where they spent the winter. Robert Elliott and family of Worcester recently visited at Thomas Elliott's.

About 40 friends of Mr. and Mrs. James Mackintosh attended an informal reception held at their home Tuesday afternoon to celebrate their 55th wedding anniversary.

Memorial exercises will be held Sunday at the church, after which the children will march to the cemetery and decorate the soldiers' graves. There will be no Sunday school.

At the meeting of Wolf Den grange Wednesday evening the lecture's hour was in charge of Mrs. George Rich, Nelson Platt and Arthur Gallup. A supper was furnished by the men who lost out in the recent contest.

The annual meeting of the Foreign Missionary society was held Friday afternoon at Library hall. Mrs. Burt Whitehouse was elected president, Mrs. Thomas Elliott, vice president, and Mrs. Seymour Peal, secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Seth Kimball, who was president last year, was made an honorary member. The sum of $74 was received from collections and fees.

Mrs. S. B. Overlook of Pomfret invited those interested in the work of the Red Cross to meet at her home last Sunday afternoon, May 22, to hear of the work of the society in France.

Miss Mary Cogswell is seriously ill at her home in East Hartford.

Norwalk.—The Western Fairfield County Dental society is preparing to hold its annual field day at Dorset's Point, East Norwalk, June 18.

Saved My Life With Eatonic
Says New Jersey Woman
"I was nearly dead until I found Eatonic and I can truly say it saved my life. It is the best stomach medicine ever made," writes Mrs. Ella Smith.
Acid stomach causes awful misery which Eatonic quickly gets rid of by taking up and carrying out the acidity and gases which prevent good digestion. A tablet taken after meals brings quick relief. Keeps the stomach healthy and helps to prevent the many ills so liable to arise from excess acid. Don't suffer from stomach troubles when you can get a big box of Eatonic for a trifle with your druggist's guarantee.
